Re: United States v. Rashid Sultan Rashid Al Malik Alshahhi, et al.
Criminal Docket No. 21-371 (S-1) (BMC)

Dear Judge Cogan:

The government respectfully writes in response to the Court's scheduling order entered on July 15, 2022. See Minute Entry dated July 15, 2022. In their letter to the Court dated May 23, 2022, the parties advised the Court that they had jointly agreed to submit proposed juror questionnaires on August 1, 2022. See Dkt. No. 107. At the subsequent status conference, the Court adopted the parties agreed-upon schedule. See Minute Entry dated May 24, 2022. In its most recent scheduling order, the Court indicated that prospective jurors are to complete questionnaires on August 1, 2022, the date that the parties had proposed to submit their draft juror questionnaires for the Court's consideration. The government therefore respectfully requests clarification from the Court as to the date by which the parties should submit their proposed juror questionnaires.

Respectfully submitted,

BREON PEACE
United States Attorney
